

K-LOVE has served us in our community since we relocated here in 2000. If an LPFM broadcasting other programming were to replace K-LOVE, this would be devastating for not only my family, but for those who rely on this as a connection to God and those that use K-LOVE a tool for raising their children. K-LOVE is a positive message for our community and it would be unfortunate if we were to lose this blessing.